Anthelio Healthcare Solutions Acquires Pyramid Healthcare Solutions, Positioning Anthelio As The Largest Independent Provider Of Health Information Management Services

Acquisition unites two HIM industry leaders, opening new markets and enhancing services for Anthelio and Pyramid customers

Dallas, Texas, July 21, 2015 —Anthelio Healthcare Solutions, the largest independent provider of healthcare technology and services, today announced it has acquired Pyramid Healthcare Solutions, an Avantha Group company, a leading provider of Health Information Management (HIM) and Revenue Cycle Services (RCM). The acquisition positions Anthelio to be the market leader in HIM and RCM services. It also expands Anthelio's footprint in the patient financial services arena and enhances its revenue cycle offerings. Pyramid brings a full suite of revenue cycle management solutions and expertise to the relationship, as well as an established customer base of healthcare facilities.

 "Acquiring Pyramid represents an important strategic opportunity to further strengthen Anthelio's position as a trusted leader in healthcare technology solutions," said Asif Ahmad, CEO, Anthelio Healthcare. "Our goal is to have the broadest and best portfolio of technology solutions to help our customers navigate the challenging healthcare landscape. This acquisition is a perfect fit with that strategy. It expands our service portfolio in a complementary manner and addresses the many core business processes that hospitals and physicians are faced with today.Additionally, this acquisition expands our medical coding, clinical documentation improvement, and auditing resource talent pool which are operational areas that are extremely critical in today's environment" he noted.

The HIMSS Revenue Cycle Improvement Task Force recently released a report entitled "Rethinking Revenue Cycle Management (RCM)". The report cites that the rapid growth in consumer payments, reduced payer reimbursement rates, an ever changing regulatory environment and shifting consumer expectations have all contributed to the challenges facing RCM. Since Pyramid provides best in class patient financial and revenue cycle services, the acquisition allows Anthelio to create end-to-end customer solutions and revenue cycle improvement technologies that lead to increased savings, improved analytical insights, decreased claim denials and efficient resource allocation.

"This is a tremendous opportunity for Pyramid staff to be part of a world-class team and play a key role in enhancing revenue cycle offerings that help solve some of the healthcare industry's biggest challenges," said Manoj Malhotra, former Chairman of Pyramid. "When two companies share such a dynamic business culture, namely a dedication to customer service excellence, it makes an ideal match," he noted.

Founded in 1985 and headquartered in Clearwater, FL. Pyramid has evolved into a national enterprise and has serviced over 500 healthcare clients including hospitals, healthcare systems, physician groups and the pharmaceutical industry.

 "Pyramid has a strong and loyal customer base and excellent business processes in place. Our commitment continues to be laser focused on providing service excellence. Therefore, we will be relentless in our efforts to ensure a seamless client transition and to combine our expertise and best practices to develop innovative technology solutions that provide sustainable value in today's volatile healthcare landscape," Ahmad concluded.
