Anthelio® Launches New Website

New Orleans, Louisiana (March 6, 2013) — Anthelio Healthcare Solutions Inc. (Anthelio®), a leading provider of comprehensive healthcare information technology (IT) services and business process (BP) solutions, today announced the launch of its new fully-featured website www.antheliohealth.com. The announcement was made by Rick Kneipper, Anthelio’s CEO (Interim) and Co-Founder, at the HIMSS 2013 conference in New Orleans, Louisiana.

The new website has been designed to provide the ultimate user-friendly experience with enhanced navigation and functionality. The site includes extensive information about Anthelio’s full services portfolio, allowing customers to access detailed information based on their choice and preference, with an option to share information across all major social networking sites.

Videos, webinars, case studies and whitepapers provide a detailed overview of Anthelio’s capabilities across a complete range of healthcare services including IT, health information management, coding, clinical documentation improvement, ICD-10, security and privacy and electronic medical records. The website’s new features include a link to an independent Healthcare Innovation Hub that allows visitors to exchange innovative healthcare related ideas.

“Anthelio is excited about the launch of its new website that offers quick and easy access to essential information. The launch is part of Anthelio’s ongoing efforts to enhance the quality and availability of information for its customers and potential customers,” said Rick Kneipper, Anthelio’s CEO (Interim) and Co-Founder.

The new website, compatible with today’s browsers and mobile devices, allows visitors to stay informed with the latest Anthelio announcements, Anthelio and industry resource information, and opinion pieces from healthcare industry experts. Visitors to the site can request information or directly set up meetings with Anthelio leadership, sales representatives and subject matter experts.
